IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF ALABAMA NORTHERN DIVISION

CARL EMMETT WYATT
Petitioner

v. s

GWENDOLYN MOSLEY, WARDEN, ET. AL
Respondant

CIVIL ACTION
NO. 2:05-781-F

Petitioners Response To Court order.
Dated, 3 October 2005

STATEMENT OF FACTS.

On May-8th-2000 The petitioner appeared before a Trial Jury for MURDER and RECKLESS MURDER of his friend Hermon Searcy.

petitioners attorney failed to apply appropriate law by letting him stand trial before a jury in a bright orange jail house clothing with the words AUTAUGA COUNTY JAIL stenciled on the front and back, allowing the petitioner to appear before a jury he failed to protect his presumption of innocence which is a violation of

The petitioners Due process rights of the Constitution amendment #14 as well as his 5th and 6th amendments. The petitioner was sentenced to 30 yrs DEC. for ~~the~~ <sup>an</sup> Reckless Murder and was incarcerated at Easterling Correctional Facility at Climo, Alabama in February 2001. The petitioner and another Inmate began a search & Discovery of the petitioner's Court Transcript and Case Laws in the facility's Law Library, and discovered that the petitioner's prosecutions of Innocence had been violated by being allowed to go before a Jury in prison clothes. So the petitioner called his brother was telling him about it. When the petitioner found out that his brother had brought him clothing to wear to Court, the petitioner did not know at the time that he had a option, because he was was in State and County Control. The petitioner is sending a signed and notarized statement to the fact he had brought the petitioner clothing to wear to Court.

The petitioner prays The Court will grant him a new Trial or other Relief.
